Ross & Rothwell: in the same boat

We warmly invite you and your guests to the opening of our first exhibition of 2024.

Ross & Rothwell: in the same boat will be officially opened by Maud Page, Deputy director and director of collections, Art Gallery of NSW.

Through a collection of new and existing work by Joan Ross and Caroline Rothwell, this exhibition explores the disjunction between colonisation and the natural world and the fraught legacy left behind.

The exhibition continues until Sunday 5 May.
